Memoirs of the
Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine: -21, 1906 (Classic Reprint):

The reports of the Congo Expedition which are contained in this volume embody the results of the most important pieces of work in progress at the time of the much deplored death of the head of our Expedition It is impossible to tell how much the friend in him was regretted how much the leader was missed Our loss was great and the work of the Expedition suffered severely Dr Dutton had been my companion through three years of constant work on trypanosomiasis We knew
